LAW DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Simla-4, the 7th November, 1958/16th Kartika, 1880

No. LR. 16-193/58.—The Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Bill, 1958, by Shri Raghbir Sahai, M.P., as introduced in the Lok Sabha is hereby published along with the statement of objects and reasons, for eliciting public opinion on this Bill, which may be submitted by any interested person or public body by the 30th November, 1958, to this Administration. Any opinion submitted direct to the Lok Sabha Secretariat or to any other Ministry of the Government of India will not be accepted.

By order,
LAKSHMAN DASS,
Under Secretary.

THE CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

(AMENDMENT) BILL, 1958

(Bill No. I of 1958)

(AS INTRODUCED IN LOK SABHA)

A BILL

further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 19.

2. Amendment of section 342.—In sub-section (2) of section 342 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), the words "or by giving false answers to them" shall be omitted.

3. Amendment of section 562.—In sub-section (1) of section 562 of the principal Act, after the words "antecedents of the offender", the words "and the offender making a completely true statement without concealing anything" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of the Bill is to eliminate prejudice from law Courts and to encourage amongst the litigant public the habit of speaking the truth. A statutory guarantee to the accused for making a false statement as provided for in section 342 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, is repugnant to modern notions of jurisprudence and should be deleted. Similarly amongst the extenuating circumstances which the Court may take into consideration at the time of applying provisions of section 562 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, it may also be considered if the offender has made a clean breast of things concealing nothing.

The Bill is intended to achieve the object by amending sections 342 and 562 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, in the manner indicated above.

NEW DELHI;
The 23rd January, 1958.

RAGHUBIR SAHAI.

ANNEXURE

EXTRACTS FROM THE CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE, 1898

(No. V of 1898)

* * *
342. Power to examine the accused.—(1) For the purpose of enabling the accused to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him, the Court may, at any stage of any inquiry or trial without previously warning the accused, put such questions to him as the Court considers necessary, and shall, for the purpose aforesaid, question him generally on the case after the witnesses for the prosecution have been examined and before he is called on for his defence.

(2) The accused shall not render himself liable to punishment by refusing to answer such questions, or by giving false answers to them; but the Court and the jury (if any) may draw such inference from such refusal or answers as it thinks just.

(3) The answers given by the accused may be taken into consideration in such inquiry or trial, and put in evidence for or against him in any other inquiry into, or trial for, any other offence which such answers may tend to show he has committed.

(4) No oath shall be administered to the accused when he is examined under sub-section (1).

562. Power of Court to release certain convicted offenders on probation of good conduct instead of sentencing to punishment.—(1) When any person not under twenty-one years of age is convicted of an offence punishable with imprisonment for not more than seven years, or when any person under twenty-one years of age or any woman is convicted of any offence not punishable with death or imprisonment for life, and no previous conviction is proved against the offender, if it appears to the Court before which he is convicted, regard being had to the age, character or antecedents of the offender, and to the circumstances in which the offence was committed, that it is expedient that the offender should be released on probation of good conduct, the Court may, instead of sentencing him at once to any punishment, direct that he be released on his entering into a bond, with or without sureties to appear and receive sentence when called upon during such period (not exceeding three years) as the Court may direct, and in the mean-time to keep the peace and be of good behaviour:

Provided that, where any first offender is convicted by a Magistrate of the third class, or a Magistrate of the second class not specially empowered by the State Government in this behalf, and the Magistrate is of opinion that the powers conferred by this section should be exercised, he shall record his opinion to that effect, and submit the proceedings to a Magistrate of the first class or Sub-divisional Magistrate, forwarding the accused to, or taking bail for his appearance before, such Magistrate, who shall dispose of the case in manner provided by section 380.
